SIR,

In submitting herewith the records together with a copy of the docket No.144, dated 28-9-1910, received from the Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur District, relating to the enquiry into the claims of the Inamdar of Nandihalli village of the Tumkur Taluk to the Excise Revenue, I have the honor to state that the village in question was granted as Devadaya Inam for the up-keep of the Sri-Pādarayaswami-Mutt of Mulbagal in the Kolar District. The records which were originally received in this Office with an exparte decision against the Inamdar on the 4th May 1907, were returned to the Deputy Commissioner, with a request that a chance may be given to the Inamdar who is a well-known personage to produce what evidence he may have in his possession in support of his claim and further investigation was called for as the Inam Settlement Register of enquiry had -- neither reserved nor conceded the right to the Inamdar. In spite of the repeated correspondence between the Tumkur and the Kolar Districts and innumerable opportunities afforded to the Inamdar no further evidence to alter the decision already passed has been produced.

There is not a single circumstance in the whole records of the right having been granted to the Inamdar. The copies of the Sannad and the Kyfiethpatti are as silent on the point as the Inam Register. In the statement given by the Agent of the Mutt before the District Excise Officer Kolar on the 20th December 1909, it is plainly admitted that no further references are avail-able in the Mutt. It can therefore be safely presumed that the Mutt never enjoyed this revenue at any time, although there has been a toddy shop in the village from a long time.

Under the above circumstances, I beg that Government may be pleased to pass early orders to treat the shop as belonging to Government.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

In reply to the above, undersigned has the honor to state that after much correspondence and considerable time, one KrishnamurthyaChar, the present agent to Sree SriPadarajaswamy - Mutt has presented authenticated copies of a sannad (Nirup) purporting to have been granted by His Highness the late Maharaja Krishnaraja Wodiyar on 17th January 1812, and Kyfiethpatti of the year Hevilambi) and they are herewith forwarded. No mention is made in these about the right to toddy revenue. The Agent in his statement given on 7th August 1908, before the Amildar of Mulbagal taluk and in that given on 20-12-09, before the District Excise Officer of Kolar, has deposed that no other documents are forthcoming in the Mutt.
